My project is in essence an online hybrid course. The students will be able to log into the course, watch the videos and complete and submit the worksheets to learn the grammar and vocabulary of the unit. They will be doing some parts in class such as tests and presentations.